HON. CALVIN HOWARD died in Zanes-early settlers in Delaware, for many years he prominently and actively believed in our town, and while residing here filled successively the offices of Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and County Treasurer. He was far advanced in life, and had resided in Zanesville less than a year.

NEWSPAPER IMPROVEMENT.—Our contemporary, the Country Times, has been improved, Ohio, has made a great improvement by putting on new wearing apparel, and a general reconstruction of its outside appearance.

The Times abundantly deserves its tyographical fine line, and we hope may be regarded every day with sympathies additions to its subscription list. Long and gloriously may it flourish among the hills and valleys of old Germany.

LECTURE BY FRED DOUGLASS.—The University Lecture Association have secured a lecture by Frederick Douglass on "Our Composite Nationality," at the Opera House, on to-morrow (Saturday) evening. We hope Mr. Douglass will be no less successful in securing a full house than he was on the occasion of his former visit to Delaware. His lecture is a new one, and those who listen to it may be assured of hearing something good. His treatment of his theme is always eloquent, masterly and instructive.

PERSONAL.—Rev. O. H. Newton, who has officiated for the past fourteen years as Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, has received the appointment as Chaplain of the Ohio Penitentiary, at Columbus. During Mr.

Newton's pastorate, professional services in Delaware have been ably and efficiently performed. He has been a valuable and successful pastor, and his services will be missed by the church and the community. He will be succeeded by Rev. J. H. Newton, who will be installed on the 1st of April.
